

in praise of marriage

Headley & Meulenkamp
FOLLIES
Grottoes & Garden Buildings

Grotto (1990s)
ST 720 390

Cannwood Farm belongs to Andy and Polly Garnett and he and the designer Julian Bannerman have created a great grotto, constructed from burr elm, which makes an amazing natural gargoyle. It looks rather like an enormous, scruffy and overgrown tree stump in a sort of round room-shape, with new trees growing within the structure. Inside are flints and ammonites and there is actually a stove with a little chimney, so you feel you have just entered fairy wonderland.